Motion for Revocation of Detention Order

I request a revocation of the order for pretrial detention entered on March 3, 2014 by the magistrate, Jeffery Cureton, who I commanded Angela Saad to object to, however she did not follow my command. The grounds for this motion are as follows:

2.

April 17, 2014

1. Aisha Saleem has failed to offer, on and for the record, factual evidence and a witness with firsthand knowledge the constitution and codes are applicable to me.
2. Aisha Saleem has failed to produce factual evidence and a witness with firsthand knowledge which show I am a subject of or slave to her client "United States of America."
3. Failure of Aisha Saleem to produce the aforementioned things goes straight to this courts lack of ~~jud~~ jurisdiction over myself.

April 17, 2014

4. This court continues to secret the jurisdiction in which this code violation can even be heard or held as "case and/or cause".

5. To assume Aisha Saleem does not need to provide factual evidence and a witness with firsthand knowledge the constitution and codes are applicable to me, is to assume I am a slave to Aisha Saleem's client and therefore automatically subject to her clients codes and constitution.

6. I am neither a slave to nor subject of, Aisha Saleem.

April 17, 2014

I should therefore be released in the interest of justice, until Aisha Saleem offers, on and for the record, factual evidence and a witness with firsthand knowledge the constitution and codes are applicable to me.

Furthermore, I should be released, in the interest of justice, pending Aisha Saleem's answer to my counterclaim. I also order and command this court to reveal the Jurisdiction this code violation is ruled by, on and for the record.

For the foregoing reasons, I request that this court revoke the March 3, 2014, order of detention issued by Jeffery Cureton. I

Court Clerk,

This letter is intended for Terry Means' court clerk. How are you ma'am? I have requested a copy of the record for the record numbered, 4:14-CR-00023-Y-1. I would be greatly appreciative if you would send me a copy of everything in the record. If you are already working on sending me copies, I apologize for my impatience. Oh, one more thing, could you please enclose the number where I can call to speak to the clerks office? Please include a file stamped copy of this motion as well.

Thank You,
Chris Weast
